Who voted in the past presidential election (2016) in Nerth Daketa?

of North Dakota voting age population voted in the past presidential election (2016).

Higher levels of education translated into higher levels of voting.

Women voted at slightly higher rates than men.

i $65 \%$  63\%

Counties with highest voting rates.

| Billings | $84 \%$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| Slope | $74 \%$ |
| Kidder | $74 \%$ |

Older people were more likely to vote than younger people.

Non-Hispanic white people voted at higher rates than people of other races and ethnicities.

| White non-Hispanic | $68 \%$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| Other races and  ethnicities | $38 \%$ |
| American Indian | $24 \%$ |

People with higher family incomes voted at higher rates than people with lower family incomes.

Counties with lowest voting rates.

| Rollette | $\mathbf{4 0 \%}$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| Sioux | $\mathbf{4 6 \%}$ |
| Ward | $\mathbf{4 6 \%}$ |

[^0]Voter turnout calculated by dividing the number of voters (ballots cast) by the voting age population.

[^0]:    Source: North Dakota Compass/Civic Engagement/Voter turnout

